This stunning house is situated in a perfect position right at the point of the Garajau headland - making it extremely private, and with the most incredible ocean views. It was designed by world famous multi-award-winning interior designer, Nini Andrade Silva, and has some truly stunning features. The spectacular master bedroom and en-suite bathroom, for instance, has 10M of floor-to ceiling windows looking directly out to the ocean. There are three further double bedrooms and bathrooms, a large kitchen/dining/lounge area, a TV room, and a massive games room with darts and a ¾ sized snooker table.

Outside, the large upstairs terrace is perfect for entertaining, with a relaxing area, and an outside dining area equipped with a Weber BBQ. The terrace looks down to the heated swimming pool and gardens, and from there directly to Madeira's famous Christo Rei statue and the ever-changing vista of the Atlantic Ocean.

Garajau's traditional High Street has great range of shops, cafés, bars, supermarkets and restaurants, all within easy walking distance of the house. The house is just ten minutes' drive from Funchal International Airport, and only eight kilometres from Funchal town centre.
